A Start to a New Year

Hi, my name is Mariah Law ~ your 2012 Sweetheart! I look forward to getting to know all of the Sigma Chi's that I possibly can!

This year I will keep upcoming Eta Iota events and other news in each issue to keep everyone updated on the undergrads here at ERAU. I want to continue the excitement of learning about the accomplishments of the all the fine men of the Eta Iota chapter.

For this semester in each issue of Sweet Happenings from Your Sweetheart, I plan on introducing a few of the newly initiated brothers as well as highlights on how the chapter is doing.

I hope to keep you all in touch with all of the fun happenings on Ridgewood, where there is sure to be plenty more memorable moments.

I want to continue to keep the alumni engaged in what is going on here on and off campus.

I am so excited for what this year has in store for Eta Iota. I will do my best to make sure you are up to date with the happenings in 2012. I hope that by the time march rolls around again, you are just as excited as you were last year to celebrate your chapter's anniversary!

A Little About Me

So, my name is Mariah Law and this past year at White Elephant I was named the 2012 Sweetheart of the Eta Iota chapter of Sigma Chi. I am so honored!

My plan of action for Sweetheart, and afterward, is to help the chapter in anyway possible.

The 2nd Annual Norman Shield Award – To be presented to the most deserving brother at Birthday

At HI's 41st Birthday celebration I would like to reward the Brother who best exemplifies a Sigma Chi. By living up to the values of the Fraternity as well as aspiring to be the best possible Brother he will be presented with the 2nd annual Norman Shield Award.

The Norman Shield Award began last year, created by the 2011 Sweetheart, Michelle Rodio. The first recipient of this award was Jim Baldyga. Jim is currently working as a co-op for American Airlines in Dallas, TX. Jim is a Brother who most exemplifies the values of Fraternity and strong Brotherhood. He is a great man and Brother, and has been acknowledged as such by receiving The Norman Shield Award.

For this award, many things are taken into consideration such as personal accountability, service to others and willingness to help Brothers who may be struggling, their financial obligations, as well as their personal and outward respect to one's self and one's brotherhood.

The active Brother who receives this award most exemplifies the qualities of a man presented in the Norman Shield.

A Sigma Chi is a man who
... Continues a pursuit of learning for the development of knowledge, wisdom, and character

... Is a man with diverse temperaments, talents, and convictions

... Believes in the inherent values of individuals and he treats others with respect and dignity

... Acknowledges and accepts responsibility for himself and his actions

I will work closely with the Scholarship Chair to keep track of the brothers grades and also setting up study hours.

Each week the brothers will send their grades, good or bad, to the Scholarship Chair. If a Brother seems to be struggling a solution can be determined and hopefully improve the grades.

Good grades will also be awarded with a small gift from myself to keep the motivation strong.

The Norman Shield Award belongs to a Brother who is the most responsible with maintaining their grades. That means sending them in each week, attending necessary study hours and/or went to assist other brothers in need of tutoring, has the ability to ask for help when needed and also reach out and help others in need.

This Brother will have also attended the most recruitment, philanthropic, and social events as well as putting a valiant effort in paying his dues on time.

He will be the Brother who holds himself accountable for his actions, his Brother's for theirs and treats everyone with the greatest respect.

The winner will not only be judged by myself but also determined from a chapter vote for which Brother they feel is deserving of this great honor. To be a great man and Brother it takes strength, leadership, valor, promise, and the motivation to live each day by the Three Aims.

If you are able, please donate money to the *Norman Shield Award – not only will this award be a great honor to the Brother who receives it, but it will also influence the active chapter to become better men! The winner will be announced at Birthday, and recipients will continue to be named at Birthdays to come, because of such an amazing turnout last year.

To donate to this essential award, please send cash or checks to either myself, or the Queastor, Dan Duquette.
